

Alliant Baccalaureate Recipients' Continuation to Graduate School

Alliant reviewed the current activities of graduates from July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010. Of those, over 35% continued on to graduate school based on information available.

The majority of these graduates continued on to a master's programs in the fields in which they received their bachelor's degrees. For example, those who were awarded a baccalaureate degree in business administration were likely to enroll in an MBA program. The chart below indicates the percent of students pursuing additional education at various graduate and post-baccalaureate levels.

Methodology: Information on graduates was obtained using current Alliant academic records, information from the Alliant Career Services Office from follow-up contact with graduates, and the Internet. Date of Information: June 2011
